

Rally to Save Public Services on May 22 in Trenton

Stand Together to Defend Education and High Quality Health Care

Millionaires Shouldn't Get a Tax Cut While Schools, Colleges and Hospitals are Cut to the Bone

It's Time to Tip the Balance in Favor of Our Schools, Hospitals and Communities!

Thousands of people from across the state will join together in Trenton on Saturday, May 22.

The American Federation of Teachers (AFT-NJ) represents over 40,000 workers in public schools, higher education and health care.

We are standing with the students, patients and communities we serve to send a clear message to Governor Christie and the state legislature in Trenton on May 22:

Invest in New Jersey and Save Public Services!
